

"Gore leads nation in adopting healthcare robots" - NZ Herald Jan22 2013

"Gore will this week become the first place in New Zealand to employ Disney-like robots to help humans with their health."

"The ground-breaking development is thought to be the first step toward a robot future, where machines will assist us in all facets of life."

For full article on New Zealand Herald, please click here.