

Monday Night Jazz Series - Alan Brown Trio

Monday Night Jazz Series: Alan Brown Trio

(Music)

13 September 2010

8pm

Venue: Studio One, Kenneth Myers Centre, 74 Shortland Street, Auckland

Cost: $15 full price / $10 concessions

Alan Brown - Hammond organ

Dixon Nacey - guitars

Josh Sorenson - drums

Alan Brown has been involved with the Auckland jazz scene for many years, originally studying under prominent Auckland jazz pianist Phil Broadhurst, and has made a name for himself as one of the few jazz organists around town. He teaches full-time at MAINZ (Music and Audio Institute of NZ), and has tutored at the Jazz school at Massey University. In the early 90s Alan formed the jazz-fusion band Blue Train, which achieved Jazz Album of The Year in 1996 with their second album „No Free Lunch“.

See also:

- Monday Night Jazz Series: Kevin Field & Guests
- Monday Night Jazz Series: Lewis McCallum Band